

Aquatic Conservation & Ecology Lab: Summer 2025 Employment Opportunity

Hiring 2 full-time fisheries technicians for the summer

Project: Effects of invasive carp on food web structure and fish condition in Mississippi tributaries using stable isotope analysis

- Full time (40 hours/week) at $14/hour
- Electrofishing on Mississippi tributaries
 - (20-30 hrs/week)
- Processing lab samples
 - (10-20 hrs/week)
- General requirements include being capable of lifting heavy items & working in adverse weather conditions, day and night
- Experience with fisheries field work and lab work, being on a boat, & recording data is desirable but not required
- Application materials:
 - Email cover letter with brief statement of interest
 - Resume with GPA, relevant coursework, and previous work experience
 - Contact information for 2 references
 - Unofficial transcript(s)

Contact: Justin Harms jharms@iastate.edu in 424 Science II

Deadline: February 21st

