SBFC Wilderness Ranger Fellowship

POSITION OVERVIEW:
2023 Fellows cutting a tree

The SBFC Wilderness Ranger Fellowship (WRF) program provides an immersive experience in Wilderness trail conservation and management through hands-on stewardship. The fellowship will provide you with the opportunity to learn:

1) Wilderness trail maintenance skills, wilderness campsite inventory skills, and practical in-the-field decision-making;

2) The ability to safely and proficiently live, travel, and work in a backcountry setting for 8+ days at a time;

3) From SBFC staff wilderness trail professionals and US Forest Service wilderness trail technicians;

4) alongside other WRFs and volunteers from the public, and;

5) to be an on-the-ground advocate for Wilderness access, education, and protection through your words and more importantly, your actions.
